

SEVEN ALL STAR FEATURES ON ESCOWE NIGHT PROGRAM

Portland Bulletin, Oct-19-34

1. William L. Finley, motion picture travelogue series.
2. Norman Norton, professional ventriloquist.
3. The Venetian Sextette, featuring Mrs. Ethel James as a whistling soloist, with Helen Brockhagen, Theresa Szekeley, Peggy Perkin, Bennett Srederich and Ida Hamill. Catherine Covach Frederick, director and accompanist.
4. Elma Novak's all girl dance band.
5. One hundred cakes for sale via the roulette wheel, with all funds being used to establish a kitchenette in the Commercial Club headquarters for the use of committees and other public groups.
6. Gill Brother's Annual Dahlia Show.

Personnel in Charge of Arrangements

President and Toastmaster, Mrs. Eva Carr.
 Director in Charge, Roy M. Dobie.
 Publicity, Grace B. Price.
 Program, Mrs. Armena Pittmon.
 Speaker, Blanche Avery Cormany.
 Cake Sale, Nell G. Bailey.
 Decorations, Dorothy Schroeder.
 House, Amy Fulleton (cooperating with Mrs. Ray Elmer, General occasion even the dance band will be an all woman aggregation, with Elma Novak's orchestra playing during the dance hours, from 9 until midnight. The usual policy of charging 65 cents for both the dinner and the dance will be followed, leaving members free to invite guests without charge to the dance. The broadcast period over station KEX will come in the neighborhood of 10 o'clock. For those who do not care to dance, the roulette wheels on all sides of the hall, loaded down with at least one hundred cakes, will be in constant operation, with tickets going at 5 cents each. All proceeds of the cake sale will be used to establish a kitchenette in the club's headquarters.

The annual Escowe meeting marks the first big function to be held in the club headquarters since it has been completely renovated and re-decorated. The event will be in the nature of an open house for the Commercial Club. All the members and their wives are invited to come and see the newly arranged quarters of their club beautifully tinted in the refreshing green so typical of our great northwest.

Chairman ESCC House Committee).
 Floor, Minnie Owens.
 Door Prizes, Mrs. Frank Kyle.
 Standing room only, will be the order of things at the annual Escowe

WILLIAM L. FINLEY

Harvest dinner and dance of the East Side Commercial club Thursday evening, October 25. For a number of years the Escowe meeting has been outstanding, and this year with the tremendous all star program, the improved spirit due to better business conditions, and, coming on the eve of the spirited campaign which will mean many of the leading candidates in attendance—leaves little to the imagination as to what a great program is in store.

Instead of the usual cut and dried lecturer, Mrs. Cormany has arranged for William Finley, noted traveler, to show his gorgeous colored motion pictures, Mrs. Pittmon has a staff of entertainers which would do justice to any of the big time theatres. The decorations, flowers, the food and everything will be tip top. Gill Brothers will furnish the dahlias and

Finley to Illustrate Travelogue

Journal Oct 24-34
 By Elinor Pillsbury

THE ANNUAL harvest dinner of the East Side Commercial club, for which the women's committee, Es-

— Pink Photo
 Mrs. Eva Carr

ally known national travelogue. The program includes Norman Norton, ventriloquist; the Venetian sextet with Mrs. Ethel James as whistling soloist; numbers by the Rainbow Girls Marimba band, and a vocal solo by Viola Green.

Mrs. Armena Pittmon is chairman of arrangements. Dinner will be served under the direction of the house chairmen, Mrs. Lee Fulleton and Mrs. W. A. Elmer, with Mrs. Nick Schroeder in charge of table decorations. The banquet room will be decorated in autumn colors and dahlias from the Gill farms.

Dancing from 9 o'clock to midnight to Elma Novak's dance band will follow the dinner. A novel cake sale with Mrs. Nell G. Bailey in charge will be a feature of the evening. Proceeds will go toward a kitchenette in the remodeled clubrooms.